BINGO BARN'S

Fine Structure

Volunteer Shortages

For all events fines will be levied for each volunteer that is short at the sign in times and sign out times at a rate of $100 per person. The Advisor will count and record on the sign in sheet the number of volunteers signed in. If the minimum is not met the Advisor will have the Chairperson initial the sheet to indicate an awareness of the shortage.

Conduct of Fines

It is the responsibility of the Chairperson to supervise their workers and ensure that they are following the guidelines and performing their required duties. Workers must be at their assigned stations ready to complete their duties at all times throughout their event. Workers who are standing around in groups talking, on the phone, in the volunteer room (other than assigned breaks), or otherwise hiding will not be considered working.

If poor conduct is brought to the attention of the Chairperson, it is their responsibility to correct the situation. If the problem is not rectified after one warning the groups will be fined $100 for each worker not performing their duties. It is not the responsibility of the Advisor to deal with irresponsible workers. All groups should have a have a Floor Captain who deals with floor issues to prevent problems and assist the Chairperson in these matters.

Additional Fines

Clubs who wish to give up events must advise in writing by mail or email with the Manager, or talk to an Advisor more than 120 hours (5days) prior to the start of the event. A written and duly signed confirmation must follow.

Events that are given up with shorter notice will attract the following fines:

Less than 24 hours	$1000
24 hours – 47 hours	$ 800
48 hours – 71 hours	$ 600
72 hours – 95 hours	$ 400
96 hours – 120 hours	$ 200
